

Class of 2019 MA & PhD Employment Statistics

Of the graduates seeking employment or other opportunities:

91% | GSE grads
 joined/launched an organization or continued their education

96% | PhD grads
 were employed by organizations
 92% working in roles or organizations related to education

85% | MA grads
 joined/launched organizations or continued their education
 79% working in roles or organizations related to education

98% | STEP grads
 hired as teachers
 92% were employed in their desired geographic location

Graduates by Program

STEP Secondary
 Stanford Teacher Education Program
65 Students

STEP Elementary
 Stanford Teacher Education Program
22 Students

LDT
 Learning, Design and Technology
16 Students

POLS
 Policy, Organization, and Leadership Studies
30 Students

IEPA
 International Education and Policy Analysis
13 Students

ICE
 International Comparative Education
8 Students

JOINT
 Joint Degrees/ Individ. Designed 29 Students

DOCTORAL
 Doctoral Degrees
24 Students

99% knowledge rate* 4-months post-graduation
 *see report for methodology

91% of graduates accepted positions in desired geographic area

207 graduates

158 working in education organizations

17 U.S. States and the District of Columbia

9 countries outside the U.S.