

Application for Admission to the Individually Designed Master's Program in Education
(For current Stanford doctoral students)

There is no application deadline for the Individually Designed Master's Program in Education. Applications are accepted throughout the year. Applications should be submitted via email to Samantha Garcia, Assistant Director of Degree Programs and Admissions, at sgarcia8@stanford.edu

A completed application packet consists of the following:

- Application for Admission (this form)
- Statement of purpose describing your interest in the Individually Designed Program
- Preliminary Program Proposal
- If admitted to the program, a Graduate Program Authorization Petition must be submitted via Axess and be approved by the student's home department.

Last Name: _____

First Name: _____

Student ID Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Given your interests, please list the names of two GSE faculty members you would be interested in working with (please note that advisor matches are not guaranteed):

1. _____

2. _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Questions? Please email: sgarcia8@stanford.edu