

2016 CONFERENCE

An Exploration of Interdisciplinary Research

R.I.L.E. is the result of a dedicated group of faculty working to improve our understanding of the impact of race, inequality, and language in education.

Consider joining us throughout the academic year as we present findings from original research, invite guest speakers, and hear research from emerging scholars.

To join the R.I.L.E. listserv contact Annie Craft-Kincheon at anniec@stanford.edu.

As you participate in today's events use the hashtag :
#RILEconference16 to share your experience on social media.

We would like to express our sincere thanks to the RILE Conference Graduate Student Planning Committee — Tina Cheuk, Efrain Brito, and Karla Lomeli — for all of their hard work and for helping to make this conference a success.

Understanding Theory...

Friday, October 28

11 AM

Check-in and lunch | CERAS Lobby

11:30 AM

Student Poster Sessions | CERAS Lobby

1 PM

Opening Ceremonies | CERAS 101

WELCOME: Dan Schwartz, Dean, Stanford GSE

Arnetha Ball, Stanford GSE

How Race & Poverty Impact Education

Sean Reardon, Stanford GSE

2:30 - 4 PM

The Theoretical Study of Race, Poverty & Education

- ON RACE: Reading, race, class, gender and schooling | CERAS 101

Abiya Ahmed, Kyle Beckham, Ray McDermott, Stanford GSE

- ON POVERTY: Examining the impact of inequality in data sets | Big Tree Lab (CERAS 1st Floor)

Sean Reardon, Stanford GSE

- ON LANGUAGE: The reconceptualization of race and language | CERAS 204

Samy Alim, Stanford GSE

4 - 5:30 PM

Keynote Address

Agitating. Educating. Organizing. Toward a theory of Black literate lives | CERAS 101

Maisha Winn, UC Davis School of Education

Maisha T. Winn's research spans a wide variety of understudied settings, from her earlier work on the literate practices extant in bookstores and community organizations in the African American community to her most recent work, which includes a focus on establishing a Center for Restorative Justice.

5:30 - 7:30 PM

Working Dinner | CERAS Lobby

Join us for dinner table based discussions of how race, language, and poverty should be studied.

Challenging Methods...

Saturday, October 29

8 AM

Continental Breakfast | CERAS Lobby

9 - 10:30 AM

Panel Presentation | CERAS 101

Where are we as a field with our understanding of race, language, culture and inequality? What is next?

Anthony Antonio, Stanford GSE

Leah Gordon, Stanford GSE

Jonathan Rosa, Stanford GSE

10:30 AM - 12 PM

Exploring Research Methodology

- ON RACE: Examining race & culture using video analysis | CERAS 204

Ramón Martínez, Stanford GSE, with

Jennifer Langer Osuna, Stanford GSE

- ON POVERTY: Exploring the interdisciplinary nature of research on poverty & culture. Studying mobile home communities | Big Tree Lab (CERAS 1st Floor)

Amado Padilla, Stanford GSE

- ON LANGUAGE: Understanding race & language through method | CERAS 101

Adam Banks, Stanford GSE

Bryan Brown, Stanford GSE

12 - 1 PM

Lunch | CERAS Lobby

1 - 2:30 PM

Original Research Presentations

Na'ilah Nasir, University of California, Berkeley | CERAS 101

Shawn Ginwright, San Francisco State University | CERAS 204

Patrick Camangian, University of San Francisco | Big Tree Lab (CERAS 1st Floor)

2:30 - 3:30 PM

Closing Panel | CERAS 101

A vision for the study of race, culture and language

Guillermo Solano-Flores, Samy Alim, Arnetha Ball, and

Guadalupe Valdés, Stanford GSE