Course Overview
This course will focus on how to bring authenticity and joy into the ELA classroom, without sacrificing rigor. Too often, English is seen as a series of skills students must learn, as opposed to an opportunity for students to make meaning in community and find joy in critical and creative thinking/expression. While we will still explore the typical ELA domains of reading, discussion, and writing, we will do so through a culturally-sustaining lens that centers authenticity and student voice. In each class session, we will together experiment with specific strategies and structures to help develop our educator toolbox so that we can confidently design lessons that both engage and challenge our students.

Course Expectations
We will meet as a class from 3:15-6:00 pm every Tuesday from April 2 to June 4, in CERAS 300. This course is designed for us to learn in community. To that end, please come to class having completed the prework for that session and be prepared to participate in activities and discussions. Knowing how much you are all juggling this spring, I have intentionally chosen readings that are meaningful and manageable to ensure this elective is both enjoyable and doable! Candidates are expected to demonstrate the same level of professionalism as demanded of any credentialed teacher with respect to time management, communication, and integrity. Our collective engagement in class activities and discussions will facilitate our individual and communal learning. In the case of absence (for illness or family emergency or a job interview), contact me at least 24 hours before class and complete any work missed due to absence. Thank you for keeping the lines of communication open!

Course Assignments
Assignment #1: Cross Content Observation Due 4/30/24
Assignment #2: Discussion and Writing Final Assignment Due 6/4/24

Grading
My expectation is that everyone will achieve mastery of the material taught in the course. To that end, I will invite you to revise and resubmit assignments in a timely manner if mastery is not the outcome upon the first submission. Please reach out if you need extra assistance with an assignment, or need an extension.

Students with Documented Disabilities
Students who may need an academic accommodation based on the impact of a disability must initiate the request with the Office of Accessible Education (OAE). Students should contact the OAE as soon as possible since timely notice is needed to coordinate accommodations.
Honor Code

1. The Honor Code is an undertaking of the students, individually and collectively:
   a. that they will not give or receive aid in examinations; that they will not give or receive unpermitted aid in class work, in the preparation of reports, or in any other work that is to be used by the instructor as the basis of grading;
   b. that they will do their share and take an active part in seeing to it that others as well as themselves uphold the spirit and letter of the Honor Code.

2. The faculty on its part manifests its confidence in the honor of its students by refraining from proctoring examinations and from taking unusual and unreasonable precautions to prevent the forms of dishonesty mentioned above. The faculty will also avoid, as far as practicable, academic procedures that create temptations to violate the Honor Code.

3. While the faculty alone has the right and obligation to set academic requirements, the students and faculty will work together to establish optimal conditions for honorable academic work.

Violations of the Honor Code

Examples of conduct that have been regarded as being in violation of the Honor Code include:

- Copying from another’s examination paper or allowing another to copy from one’s own paper
- Unpermitted collaboration
- Plagiarism
- Revising and resubmitting a quiz or exam for regrading, without the instructor’s knowledge and consent
- Giving or receiving unpermitted aid on a take-home examination
- Representing as one’s own work the work of another
- Giving or receiving aid on an academic assignment under circumstances in which a reasonable person should have known that such aid was not permitted

COURSE CALENDAR

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Readings for class (complete before class)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Class 1: April 2 | Introduction & Literacy:
- What is Historically Responsive Literacy and what does it look like across content areas?
- What does an authentic and curious ELA classroom look/feel like?
- What are the ELA Content Standards?  | Pre-Course Survey
Gholdy Muhammad RILE Talk (4:48 - 48:28)
| Class 2: April 9 | Domain of Reading:
- How do we help students find joy in reading?
- How do we teach reading through a culturally-sustaining approach, even when we have prescribed texts?  | Cult of Pedagogy “How to Stop Killing the Love of Reading” (2017)
Ervin, J. (2022) Critically Reading the Canon: Culturally Sustaining Approaches to a Prescribed Literature |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Class</th>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Domain of Reading:</th>
<th>Domain of Discussion:</th>
<th>Assignment #1 due</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 3      | April 16   | - How do we support students’ reading of complex literary texts without killing that joy? | - How might an affective reading approach move students from comprehension to interpretation?
- How can a critical lens approach be used to engage students in reading interpretatively?     | Lena???
How Racism Tainted Women’s Suffrage                                                                 |
| 4      | April 23   | Reading nonfiction - how can you support reading in all disciplines?               | - How do we set up for a productive discussion?
- What are some ways we as teachers can structure meaningful student discussion to allow for increased equity of voice? | In Class Readings:
Ain’t I a Woman by Sojourner Truth (1851)
Yellow Wallpaper by Kate Chopin (1896) |
| 5      | April 30   |                                                                                  | - How do we value and validate the language of comfort in the classroom?
- How do we as teachers facilitate student uptake of complex texts? | “Cloud Dragon Skies” by N.K. Jemisin (short story)
| 6      | May 7      |                                                                                  | - What is the writing process?
- How can we as teachers support students as writers?
- How can we as teachers infuse joy and authenticity into writing?
Kris Gutiérrez: "A Comparison of Instructional Contexts in Writing Process Classrooms with Latino Children" (p. 251-259)
| Class 8: May 21 | Domain of Writing:
- How can teachers and peers provide meaningful feedback on student writing?
- How do we invite dialogue (rather than closure) through our feedback? | Rethinking Writing Workshops (excerpted readings slide deck)
| Class 9: May 28 | Planning with Students at Center
- How do we affirm students’ right to their own language while providing access to multiple forms of expression? | Christensen, Linda (2011). Finding Voice. Voices from the Middle, 18 (3), 9-17.
| Class 10: June 5 | Planning with Students at Center
- How can we center students as we plan?
- Sharing of final assignment and appreciations | Assignment #3 due |

Other readings you may enjoy:
- Schoenbach et. al. (2012). The Reading Apprenticeship Framework. Reading for Understanding: How Reading Apprenticeship Improves Disciplinary Learning in Secondary and College Classrooms. San Francisco: Jossey-Bass. Chapter 2 and Chapter 7 (skim as desired; see post-its about sections to read)
- Bruce, D. L. (2015). So much depends: Video poetry, media literacy, and the Common Core State Standards. Media Literacy, 12.
- “Teaching Writing with Radio.”
- Kinloch, Valerie Felita. (2005). Revisiting the Promise of Students’ Right to Their Own Language: Pedagogical Strategies. NCTE.
